

- State the first thing you should do in any animal emergency.
- Describe what the 'ABCs' are.
- Summarize the appropriate action if an animal is breathing but does not have a heartbeat
- Summarize the appropriate action if an animal has a heartbeat but is not breathing.
- Summarize the appropriate action if an animal does not have a heartbeat and is not breathing.
- Summarize the appropriate action if an animal is choking
- State how you would be able to tell if you are doing artificial respiration correctly.
- Describe where you should check a dog's pulse.
- State how often you should check the pulse when doing CPR.
- Summarize how to do CPR if you are alone and if you are with someone.
- Describe how CPR is different with a big dog vs. a small dog.
- State what to do before the Heimlich if a dog is choking.
- State how many thrusts you should perform before checking the dog's mouth.
- Summarize how the Heimlich is different if the dog is big.
- Summarize how to respond to an embedded object wound.
- State how to safely treat an animal that has been struck by a car.
- Summarize how to treat eviscerated organs.
- Summarize how to treat poisoning.
- Compare and contrast the symptoms of 1-3rd degree burns.
- Summarize how to treat heat stroke.
- Summarize how to treat an animal with something stuck in its eye.
- Summarize how to treat heat stroke.
- Summarize how to treat a cut paw.
- Describe how to prevent shock.