

Lab safety review concepts:

- How to safely handle flammable materials.
- What to do if a fire erupts.
- How to properly use eye protection.
- What to do if you wear contacts.
- What to do if you do not understand directions in a lab.
- How to dispose of chemical wastes.
- What to do if you do not finish a lab in time.
- How to heat a substance in a test tube.
- How to pick up hot glass.
- What to do if you are injured.
- What to do before using glassware.
- What to do if you have loose clothing or long hair during a lab.
- What footwear is appropriate for a lab or outside.
- What to do if a chemical is splashed on your skin or eyes.
- What number to dial in an emergency.
- What to do if you use too much of a chemical.
- What to do if glassware is chipped or cracked.
- When is it ok to be alone in a lab?
- When lab coats, goggles, and gloves are needed.
- What to do if there is broken glass or a spilled chemical.
- How to properly handle department animals.
- How to respond if an animal escapes.
- What to do if you have an injury.
- What to do if someone else has an injury.
- Number for 911
- Where the fire alarms, fire blanket, and fire extinguishers are located.
- What to do in a tornado
- What to do in a fire
- What to do in a Code Red
- What to do if you have a question about an assignment.
- Where to turn in assignments.
- What to do with money for field trips.