

Sustainability Review Concepts

- Identify sustainable choices by their description.
- Describe the differences between ecological, social, and economical sustainability.
- Summarize the five common themes of sustainability, including Stewardship of Natural Resources, Systems Approaches, Long-term Planning, Adaptation to Change, and Social and Economic Justification
- Connect how the Dust Bowl resulted from a poor understanding of sustainability in regards to the five themes of sustainability.
- State how and why large tracts of land were set aside as preserves during the 1930s.
- Identify the person regarded as the 'Father of Wildlife Management'
- Summarize the idea of the Land Ethic.
- Identify key components of sustainable forestry practices.
- Summarize and explain the following key practices in forestry: Improvement harvest, Timber Stand Improvement, Diversity improvement, and Regeneration
- Identify practices that are sustainable and not sustainable in forestry.